Additional comments:

So appreciate Prof. Courtney Hermann and the opportunities we had in this course to learn and practice practical film production skills in a safe environment. I was also happy to be in a class with classmates who are serious about learning what is being taught.

what a fantastic class! and Professor Hermann is awesome!!

The equipment room is a bit of a hassle to deal with. Courtney is fantastic, but when things aren't being checked and you're finding random cords that don't go to the equipment I've checked out, it makes things frustrating, especially when I'm expecting to have the equipment that should be with said equipment.

My only issue has nothing to do with the class or Courtney, but the equipment we needed for this course which comes from the equipment office was often times damaged, missing important pieces, and was scarcely available. Needless to say, the equipment office could use a makeover and improve their checkout system.

Great course! Taught me way more about film production than any other production course I've had.

Despite a larger class size this term Courtney continues to create a productive and instructive environment for advancement of production skills.

Amazing professor. Not enough good things to say. I'm a film major and was so lost before taking her classes. Had no idea and felt no sense of direction until now. Thank you courtney!!

Always a joy. Wish my subject had panned out better.

Best professor.

I appreciate Professor Hermann, she always takes the initiative to take the course to the next level and pushes us to use opportunities within our community. I also like that she brings in her own real-world experiences into the class as well, it proves it be invaluable advice for all of us.
