The professor was super nice and engaging, and came up with really cool assignments. I loved the textbook— it didn't read as a conventional textbook which was refreshing. The author wasn't pretentious at all, and there was no gatekeeping. It was a chill book and it made me feel more welcomed into the world of documentary. All of the feedback was super helpful. I wish I had been able to turn in more things during the term. I know my grade will be fair for what I turned in and even though it will most likely be a C it's oddly reassuring that it will be because it shows the professor is honest and fair. I liked this class a lot!

Excellent course taught by a very knowledgeable and experienced professor who spends of her time during and after class to assist students needing her help. Couldn't ask for a better arrangement between course subject matter and the breath and depth of the professor's knowledge teaching it. This makes for a competent student. Thank you.

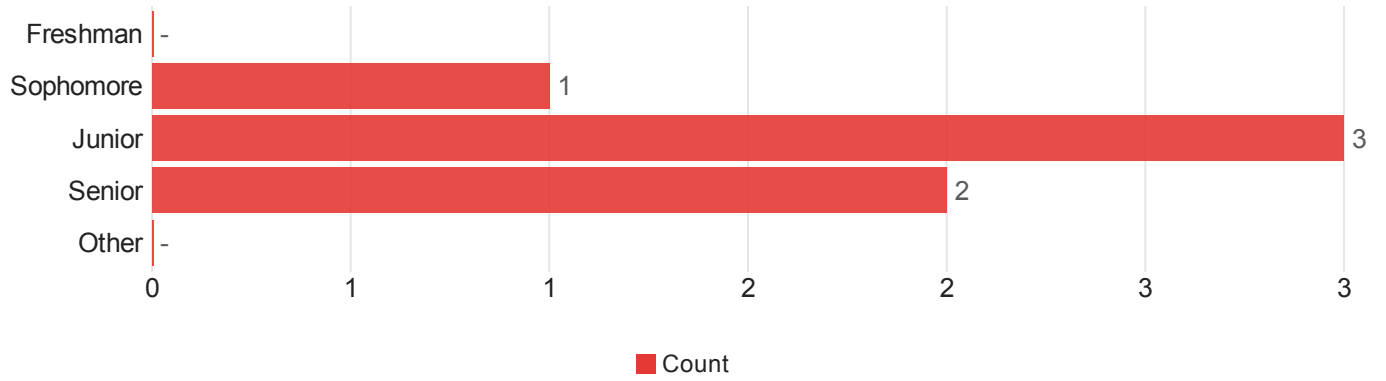

It was difficult to get help from other students to complete assignments. It might help to assign team assignments, set up in different pairs? This way we are helping each other, making connections and could learn from each other. Love the class! I learned so much and know I will be using this information in the future.

One of the few classes where the professor is engaged every class. I'm sure I'm telling nothing new. A perfect example of what those in the class should be. No bullshit, no ass kissing. Don't lose this professor. Integral to the film major.

It would have been nice for more time on the character study. So maybe in the future remove the process project or observation project as they seem slightly redundant. Or even maybe remove the day where we do on-camera interview setups as it doesn't provide any necessary knowledge for the final project.

Prof. Hermann is one of the best teachers I've had while being at PSU. Her knowledge and teaching style of this subject is incredible and effective.

the best teacher i've had in any of my film classes. so amazing and cares so much about her students. gives great feedback on all assignments which really help us be successful in film. also structured the class super nicely, all the readings and projects were extremely effective in teaching the subject. every assignment and class was 100% productive

Love this class and love the instructor!!

Text Entry

Had problems with not being able to check out specific equipment due to availability. More class time to work on final project needed.

I feel lucky to have taken this course with Courtney Hermann. She provided such important and practical information for filmmaking. I was really impressed by her ability to critically evaluate our work and offer excellent feedback.

Courtney demonstrates both expertise with her subject and experience in teaching it. She anticipates the challenges her students will face and knows when to offer guidance. Her feedback is always relevant and respectful to the feelings of others. She provides a wealth of knowledge in an open, approachable way. I'm glad I took this class and would happily recommend it and its instructor to other students.

professor hermann did an excellent job of sharing and explaining the importance of detail. the assignment load was very appropriate, my only recommendation would be to give the students and extra week to work on their final project, it felt rushed with the amount of time we were allotted.

This professor is an absolute joy to learn under. I love the class, I love the professor, and can't wait to take another course with her next term. She explains everything thoroughly using a variety of different teaching styles to make sure of that.
